

SALT LAKE BEES READY FOR GONG

1921 Aggregation Termed Weak Compared With 1920 Sluggers

The Pacific Coast league baseball season will open at Salt Lake, Tuesday, April 4. Manager Cactus Cravath and his Bees warriors will return to Salt Lake from the brief, colorful Sunday, April 4, from the dope sheet the Bees will not be in any way comparable with the aggregation that opened the 1920 season.

Salt Lake fans are sure to miss the snappy infield work of Ernie Johnson, Earl Sheely and Eddie Mulligan, while the strength of Bill Rumber and Earl Maggart is also expected to take a knockout punch out of the 1921 manager. In short the 1921 manager will open the season with but few tried ball players, and coast scribers can see nothing but the second division for the Bees.

Johnson, Mulligan and Sheely are new members of the Chicago White Sox club while Maggart and Rumber were ruled out of organized baseball by President McCarthy last season on account of alleged throwing of baseball games.

Manager Cravath, one of the brainiest baseball players in the game, however, expects to hit the Bees in the running. With Ted Jourdan at the initial sack and Paddy Sigin at second base, the Salt Lake manager boasts two of the best players in the league for a fielder and a third baser, however, must be obtained to work with these stars. Helme Sands, utility infielder of the 1920 team will in all probability hold down the hot corner for the Bees.

On the other hand the Bees are well equipped with battery material. With Lynn and Byler behind the stick, the Bees will have two of the best players in the league for that position. Lynn is a finished ball player since leaving the Salt Lake club in 1915.

The best bet on the pitching staff are Jack Hart and Edna. Hart, who was the ace of the 1920 team, is expected to have a good year. Ralph Stroud, one of the mainstays of the club, will not play professional ball this season.

Cravath will hold down one of the fly chasing positions. The other outfielders will be named before the team returns from the spring training camp. All in all the fans of Salt Lake shout and shout unanimously that their club is weak and perhaps they have a shout coming.

Coach Lovell Romney has issued the call for spring track and field work at the Utah Agricultural college and from information received here today the Aggie mentor will have a first class array of track talent in harness when the bell sounds for the state intercollegiate meet at Logan, May 14. Forty-five men have reported for places on the Aggie track team and Coach Romney will no doubt experience considerable difficulty in selecting his team for the 1921 campaign.

Sprinters galore have put in their appearance at the Aggie fair. Such men as Falek, Hanson, Dourous, Ballif, Norton, Belnap and Neuenchwander and others give promise of burning up the track. With the exception of Norton the men have all had considerable experience.

Chick Hart is expected to be the big star for the Aggies in the 880-yard run and also in the mile run. Hart won the half mile in the state intercollegiate last year and is out to cop 'em both during the coming. Hart will attempt to shatter the state record of 2:02 in the half mile and with Kerr of Utah and Brown of the "Y" running against him he should have plenty of competition.

Anderson, Andrus, Ellis, Bowman, Knowles, Judd and Worley are some of the men who loom as stars of the first order in the field events.

Coach Romney has arranged meetings with the University of Utah, the B. Y. U. and other teams for the coming season. The Aggie plint winners in the state meet will be sent to Denver to take part in the annual Rocky Mountain conference meet during the latter part of May.

The cross-country run at the school will be staged April 7. Following this the various classes will stage their interclass track and field meet.

Logan Expected to Have Snappy Track Team in 1921 Games

O'Rourke Explains Absence of Wallop in Recent Contest

Tom O'Rourke, old time handler of boxers, who was a ringster at the recent Dempsey-Brennan scrap, has an explanation for the absence of Champion Jack's famed knock- out wallop on that occasion.

O'Rourke says that Jack temporarily lost his punch, or rather softened it, by training with the clever Marty Farrell, a middleweight, in the Dempsey camp, preparatory to the Brennan combat.

O'Rourke thinks that the champion tried to emulate Farrell's style, and thus, while he picked up in footwork, he allowed the steam behind his swat to evaporate.

And there are some fans who wonder and persist that Dempsey will fall to carry that knockout punch which he angled for in the French Ace-Georges Carpenter.

FANS GATHER TO WATCH FIGHTERS

McKay and Johns Attract Good Attendance At Nightly Workouts

Last night had something of the appearance of a regular fight night in the Wasatch Athletic club arena for many came to watch Gordon McKay and Jimmie Johns go through their training paces. McKay is working for his sixteenth heading event with Clair Bromme of California and Jimmie is getting into condition to swap punches with Young Papke, another Californian who has won honors in the field events.

Both McKay and Johns work out each evening at 7 o'clock and spend more than an hour in fast sparring, swinging the dummy, shadow boxing, rope skipping and punching the bag. McKay and Johns box together each night and sweat each other around unmercifully. Johns is rapidly rounding into perfect form.

A fast battle in the lightweight class is promised in the four-round event between George Spangler of Salt Lake and Eddie Eerna of Ogden. Burns has been disposing of the local lights in the ring as fast as they come, while Jimmie Johns has been disposing of the local lights in the ring as fast as they come.

Baseball men at the Aggie fair have also reported for practice. Class games in baseball will be started early in April.

Ebbetts Would Pay Stars With New Ball System

Owner Ebbetts, of the Brooklyn Dodgers, favors a system for boosting the pay of his athletes according to the averages they make in a season's work. He would arrange some sort of sliding schedule based on fielding averages, batting averages, runs scored and games won by timely hits, then advance or drop of the salary accordingly. "The Scheme of Flatbush" says he conceived the plan in response to the tactics of players who always make their demands immediately after the official averages are published. "When a player has a poor or a mediocre season, I notice he does not seek a boost in pay because his talking points have been shot," said Ebbetts. "But when he has come close to or landed in the 300 circle, he usually sends his contract back unsigned."

Ebbetts confesses he does not know what the other magnates in the National league would think of such a scheme, but he declares he is for it and would be glad to arrange it and present it at a league meeting for official adoption. Every member of the Brooklyn team got a raise this spring because they won the flag last season, but the Brooklyn magnate declared some of the advances were really not earned.

Nickname Contest Creating Interest Among Ball Fans

The nickname contest being conducted by the Standard-Examiner will close Friday evening. Thus far hundreds of nicknames for the Ogden baseball club of the Northern Utah league have been submitted and the three judges—A. L. Glazemann, A. P. Bigelow and J. Ray Ward will no doubt have plenty of trouble in selecting the winner.

For the best nickname submitted for the Ogden club, the Standard-Examiner will give two season tickets to all games played in Ogden during the coming season. Two tickets to the opening game will be awarded the winner of second place while third and fourth place winners will each receive one ticket to the opening game.

The contest is open to all citizens of Ogden. Both men and women are urged to send in their communications to the sports editor together with name and address.

Students of the Ogden high school today submitted more than 100 nicknames for the new club while members of the Ogden Rotary club also submitted their choices. At the meeting of the Progressive Business club Tuesday every member submitted a name. The interest in the contest is at fever pitch and with but two more days remaining, it is expected that at least 2,500 names will be submitted before the contest closes.

The names of the winners will appear in the Sunday issue of the Standard-Examiner.

THE CRAZY QUILT

ARE YOU A BUG FOR STATISTICS?

WITH THE AVERAGE HAIRCUT, A BARBER WASTES 1347 SNIPS OF THE SCISSORS ON THE AIR IN AN 8 HOUR TALKING DAY. THOUGH SNIPES ARE PLACED ON HIS HAND BY THE BARBER'S BARBERS, THAT WOULD CUT A CROP OF 3,748, 240 BUTT-HOLES, OR ENOUGH FOR 744,628 MEN'S VESTS! (5 BUTT-HOLES TO A VEST)

IF ALL THE AUTO HORN HONKS TOTTED IN AMERICA IN ONE DAY, WERE COMPILED INTO ONE BIG SQUAWK, IT WOULD LAST FOR 6 WEEKS, 2 DAYS, 5 HOURS AND 2 MINUTES.

THE VIBRATION FROM IT WOULD RATTLE 477 TONS OF PUTTY LOOSE FROM THE WINDOWS OF THE COUNTRY!

IT IS ESTIMATED THAT IF ALL THE USED PHONOGRAPH NEEDLES WERE COLLECTED FROM AMERICAN HOMES AND PLACED ON END A FOOT APART, THEY WOULD COVER AN AREA OF 2,501,003 MILES AND ACCOUNT FOR 340,907,412 PUNCTURES, AND NINE TIMES THAT MANY CUSS-WORDS!

DASH GAN IT! I CAN'T WRITE A NOVEL WITH THIS PENCIL!

IT SPELLS ALL THE WORDS WRONG!

HOW SO?

It seems Wilson signed articles to make 158 pounds for a $200 forfeit to
